

I have been a flight attendant for forty yrs, and cell phone use during flight is the most outrageous request I've ever heard. Not only would this be a huge security issue, this would greatly impair performing emergency procedures if deemed necessary on the plane!! After all, this is the No. 1 reason we are on the plane!!! We, already have a hard time communicating because pass. are all wired into their computers; this would be a total disaster!!!!